CONVERSATION: FRIENDS AND FRIENDSHIP

What are the most important qualities a good friend should have? Mention at least three things that make you a good friend of others. When do you consider somebody as your friend for the first time? Can you explain what a fair weather friend is? Give an example or situation that makes it clear. How many real friends have you got? What makes a person your acquaintance and not a friend? Do you agree with the saying: "Happiness makes friends; adversity tries them". Some people argue that it's not easy to have friends of different sex. Do you agree with that? Do you know anybody who has a different opinion of friendship from you? Do your parents or elderlies and you share the same opinion of friendship?

Money, money, money

It can buy a House, but not a Home
 It can buy a Bed, but not Sleep
 It can buy a Clock, but not Time
 It can buy you a Book, but not Knowledge
 It can buy you a Position, but not Respect
 It can buy you Medicine, but not Health
 It can buy you Blood, but not Life

So you see, Money isn't everything. And it often causes pain and suffering.
 I tell you all this because I am your Friend, and as your Friend I want to take away your pain and suffering...
 So send me all your money and I will suffer for you.
 A more true Friend you will never find:-)

A BEAUTIFUL SHORT STORY ON FRIENDSHIP

- "My friend isn't back from the battlefield, sir. Request permission to go out and get him."
 - "Permission refused," said the officer. "I don't want you to risk your life for a man who is probably dead."
 The soldier went, all the same, and, an hour later, came back mortally wounded, carrying the corpse of his friend. The officer was furious.
 - "I told you he was dead. Now I've lost both of you. Tell me, was it worth going out there to bring in a corpse?
 The dying man replied:
 - "Oh, it was sir. When I got to him, he was still alive. And he said to me, "Jack, I was sure you'd come."
