

THE EXPRESSION OF QUANTITY. A/AN, SOME, ANY

Tony and Richard plan to cook dinner for some friends. Complete with some or any.

Tony: We need to buy _____ red wine.

Richard: Yes, and _____ mineral water.

Tony: We don't have _____ flour for the pudding.

Richard: Don't worry, I'll buy _____

Tony: Look! We don't have ___ milk or sugar.

Richard: Yes, I know, and we need _____ bread.

Tony: Are there _____ eggs in the fridge?

Richard: No, and there isn't _____ cheese.

Tony: Richard, we don't have _____ of the things we need for this dinner!

Complete the sentences with some or any

1. I haven't got _____ money.
2. Would you like _____ bread with your soup?
3. I bought _____ new trousers last week.
4. Have you got _____ brothers or sisters?
5. I've got _____ cousins in France.
6. There are _____ good programmes on TV tonight.
7. There aren't _____ good books in the library.
8. Could I have _____ more potatoes, please?
9. Aunt Teresa has got _____ presents for us.
10. Are there _____ oranges left?

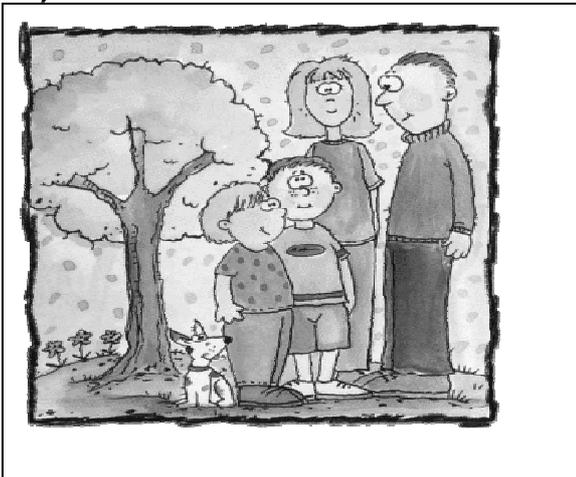

FURTHER PRACTICE: Take a look at the pictures and answer the questions by using a/an, some / any

A)

- 1.- Can you see any kids?
.....
- 2.- Are there any kites?
.....
- 3.- Are there any buildings?
.....
- 4.- Can you see any balls?
.....
- 5.- Are there any clouds in the sky?
.....

B)

- 1.- Can you see any trees?
.....
- 2.- Is there any food for the dog?
.....
- 3.- Is there any water near the tree?
.....
- 4.- Can you see any flowers behind the tree?
.....
- 5.- Can you see any babies?
.....
- 6.- Has the tree got any fruit?
.....