

ORAL PRACTICE. 1
UPS AND DOWNS IN LIFE

MARK: Why are you crying, Susan?

SUSAN: I don't want to talk about it. Please, don't get angry, but I would like to keep it for myself

MARK: No problem; however, I would like to help.

SUSAN: You are always willing to help whenever I'm in trouble, and that's very nice of you.

MARK: Come on, what's wrong?. I can't do anything if you don't tell me.

SUSAN: OK. I am having big economic problems at the moment. I can hardly cover expenses.

MARK. I understand. It's not easy to stay calm when you're going through this.

OTHER MISFORTUNES:

- Ralph, the man of my dreams, is dating my best friend.
- My parents are always arguing.
- My father is suffering from Alzheimer's disease.

FUNCTIONS

- 1.- Telling about present situations. (present simple, present continuous)
- 2.- Talking about everyday matters
- 3.- Expressing frequency (frequency adverbs)
- 4.- Expressing will and desire (want to ; would like to)
- 5.- Expressing concern about others . (Come on, what's wrong? I..)
- 6.- Expression possession (genitive structure, possessive determiners, have,..)