

AN EMERGENCY CALL

OPERATOR : Hello, 911. Emergency Services

RACHEL: Help me, please. I need help

OPERATOR : What's your name?

RACHEL: Rachel Smith

OPERATOR : All right, I have your address on the computer. Do you need an ambulance or the police?

RACHEL: An ambulance, I think.

OPERATOR : What happened?

RACHEL: It's my sister Carol. She took some pills.

OPERATOR : OK, what kind of pills?

RACHEL: I don't know. She was very upset and she wanted to feel better, so she took some pills. But now she's very very sick.

OPERATOR : Calm down. Is she breathing?

RACHEL: Yes, she is, but she feels terrible. Please send help. I don't know what to do.

OPERATOR : All right, your sister was very lucky that you were around. An ambulance is on the way.

RACHEL: How long will it take it to get here?

OPERATOR :As soon as possible.
