PLOT

Scruffy idealist Ned (Paul Rudd) wreaks havoc on the lives of his mother (Shirley Knight) and three sisters, Miranda (Elizabeth Banks), Natalie (Zooey Deschanel), and Liz (Emily Mortimer), while overstaying his welcome in each of their homes and voicing his opinions when they aren't wanted. Organic farmer Ned always looks for the best in everyone, but his unfailing honesty continually lands him in hot water. Arrested for selling drugs to a uniformed police officer, Ned gets the boot from his girlfriend, and mourns losing custody of his beloved dog, Willie Nelson. Fortunately for Ned, his sisters are able to recognize his inherent goodness and give him a place to stay as he struggles to get back on his feet. Meanwhile, Ned's unusual habit of telling the truth often comes at the cost of his siblings' sanity, and before long they're regretting their decision to help him out. But just when it starts to look as if Ned might be the dimmest bulb in the box, a sudden epiphany prompts his entire family to consider the prospect that the world would be a much better place if everyone were as honest as their freewheeling brother

OUR IDIOT BROTHER

JANET: You stay cool, little mama. Not in front of the chickens, babe...

NED: Sweetie! Hey, sweetheart.

JANET: Ned! Whoa. Whoa. What are you doing here, man?

NED: They let me go early. Good behaviour. I won Most Cooperative Inmate, four months running.

JANET: Of course you were.

NED: I missed you so much.

JANET: Baby, I...

BILLY: Hey, man.

NED: Hi.

JANET: Ned, this is Billy. Billy, this is.. Ned.

BILLY: Oh. I've heard a lot about you. How's it going, Ned? Janet's told me a lot of stuff about you. Some of it's pretty intense.

JANET: I've made some changes since you've been gone.

BILLY: I told her to tell you earlier, but you know what she's like...

JANET: Billy, you said you'd be supportive.

BILLY: Sorry, man.

JANET : it's all right.

BILLY: It's cool you're out of jail. I'll let you guys do this.

NED: Thanks, Billy. Wow, man. Well... where do I go now?

JANET: Ned, you had, like, eight months to think about this.

NED: Yeah, but for eight months I thought I was coming back here, I mean, I've lived here for three years. I lived here before you lived here.

JANET: it's not a contest! Dude, this is what happens when you don't use your head.

Can you just think for a minute what it was like for me these past few months?

NED: You? Well, you know, where-'s... Where's Willie Nelson? Willie Nelson? Willie!

Willie! Hey, buddy! We'll be fine.

JANET: But Willie Nelson is not your dog. Tim , who's my friend, left him here.

NED: Willie, who do you wanna live with? Who do you wanna live with?

JANET: That is so not cool, Ned. Are you seriously gonna put that dog in that position?

Look, I am really happy that you got out of prison. But it is not fair to uproot this animal. He loves it here.

NED: I'm not gonna uproot him. I'm still gonna work here.

JANET: Well, you think that Dave is gonna take you back after what you did?

NED: Well, I'm still taking him with me.

JANET: Where? Where, Ned?

NED: - I..

JANET: That's what I thought. Come on, Willie Nelson. Come on. Let's go.

NED: Come on! How can you do this to me? To us?

JANET: We've had three beautiful years, man. Let me go.

NED: Not me and you, me and Willie Nelson.

JANET: Let's go. Come here. Get inside.
