READING.-BRITISH MYTHS AND LEGENDS	READING.- BRITISH MYTHS AND LEGENDS
1.- Shaun put his hands on his head. His hair was very short. "Hey! Why did you take my hair?" Shaun asked angrily. The leprechaun didn't answer. Suddenly, the golden hair in the leprechaun's hand started to change. It became hard like gold. Shaun was very surprised. The hair transformed into real gold! The leprechaun put the gold coins in a pot and ran into the forest. "I must catch that leprechaun," thought Shaun. "He stole MY hair to make that gold. The gold is MINE!" <input type="text"/>	"You'll escape and then I'll never find the gold." "I promise I won't escape," said the leprechaun. "Leprechauns ALWAYS keep a promise." "That's true," thought Shaun. "Everybody knows that leprechauns always keep promises." "OK," said Shaun, and he put the leprechaun on the ground. He followed the small man into the forest. They walked between the tall trees and the small bushes. After about twenty minutes, the leprechaun stopped and pointed at a bush. "The gold is here, in the ground, under this bush," he said. <input type="text"/>
