

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

PRACTICE.- 1.- What are they doing?

2.- CHANGE INTO THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS

Example: Juan paints his rooms → Juan is painting his room.

- 1.- They go to school → .....
- 2.- Marta reads magazines → .....
- 3.- My parents don't play chess → .....
- 4.- What do you do? → .....
- 5.- Simon works hard → .....
- 6.- My neighbour doesn't sing Christmas carols → .....
- 7.- Where does your sister go? → .....
- 8.- Why do they use the computer? → .....
- 9.- I don't watch TV → .....
- 10.- We don't speak loud → .....

3.- JOIN US! ( PRACTICE AND PRODUCTION)

PHIL: Hi, guys, what are you doing?
 PETER: We're just talking . Do you want to join us?
 PHIL: Sure, what are you talking about?
 PETER: Just small talk . Jim is telling us about his roommate. He never does the housework and he makes a lot of noise at night. Jim is thinking about moving out.
 PHIL: That sounds reasonable. I agree with you, Jim.

OTHER TOPICS.

- Anthony's roommate doesn't pay his share of the rent. He always makes excuses. Anthony's solution: to write him a note and warn him that he has to pay his share.
- Laura and Sam's car is giving a lot of problems. It usually breaks down.
Their solution: to buy a new one.
- Sarah's son doesn't study at all. He skips classes every other day and he's always disturbing in class.
Sarah's solution: to make an appointment with her son's tutor and school counsellor .